Suggested Summer Reading Activities:

- Pantomime
- Act out a scene you choose or the class calls out to you while up there.
- Dramatic monologue: Create a monologue for a character in a scene. What are they thinking/feeling at that moment? Why? Where are they? Why? What are they thinking?
- Business card book: Write the story in the most compelling way you can on paper the size of a business card.
- Postcard: Write to a friend, the author, or to a character about this book as if you were the character or author.
- Mapmaker: Draw a map of the book's setting.
- Moviemaker: Write a one page "pitch" to a producer explaining why the story would or would not make a great movie.
- Trailer: Movie previews always offer a quick sequence of the best moments that make us want to watch it – storyboard or narrate the scenes for your trailer. Focus on verbs.
- Billboard: As in the movies, take what seems the most compelling image(s) and create an ad.
- Adjective-it is: Pick five adjectives for the book or character(s), and explain how they apply.
- Collage: Create an individual or class collage around themes or characters in the book.

You can find magic wherever you look, sit back and relax, all you need is a book! – Dr. Seuss

Enjoy reading!
